Pine Point Mine, Pine Point Mining Limited

RE: How to view Kátł'odeeche First Nation's confidential Indigenous Traditional Knowledge Report

Kátł'odeeche First Nation (KFN) and the Review Board have finalized a non-disclosure and confidentiality agreement for the Pine Point Mine environmental assessment (EA). The agreement outlines how confidential Indigenous Traditional Knowledge submitted by KFN in its report Kátł'odeeche First Nation Traditional Knowledge and Community Impacts Assessment of the Proposed Pine Point Mine Project is to be protected by and shared with the Review Board for this EA.<sup>1</sup>

The agreement includes provisions to safeguard the confidential Indigenous Traditional Knowledge submitted by KFN, and allows parties to view the information under certain conditions as follows:

- (a) The Review Board will keep one secure, hard copy of the confidential information at the Review Board's office.
- (b) Parties to the EA that wish to access the document for the purpose of the proceeding ("Requesting Party") may contact Review Board staff to request to review the confidential information.
- (c) A Requesting Party will describe who will review the confidential information, and why they want to.
- (d) Review Board staff will notify KFN of the request and, if the request is reasonable, Board staff will schedule a time for the Requesting Party to view the confidential information.

<sup>1</sup> During Mackenzie Valley Review Board (Review Board) engagement with parties regarding the Review Board's information requests to Indigenous governments, KFN requested to submit a response to the information request under confidential cover. Parties had opportunity to comment on the request. The Review Board accepted the confidential information from KFN on January 16, 2026.

(e) The Requesting Party will sign an agreement with the Review Board to be bound to the same or similar non-disclosure and confidentiality obligations as are set out in the agreement between KFN and the Review Board.

(f) Review Board staff will remain in the room while the confidential information is being viewed by the Requesting Party.

(g) The Requesting Party will not take photos or make copies of the confidential information.

A non-confidential summary prepared by KFN is posted on the Review Board's public registry.

If parties wish to review the confidential information, please send an email to the contacts below stating who will review the information and why they want to review it:
